

Engagement Photography Tips

Lifestyle photograph is great for capturing the essence of your relationship so think about your home, your first date or where you met for those intimate photographs. You can always schedule multiple locations.

Time: One to two hours before sunset is the BEST lighting for outdoor sessions which provide a beautiful glow.

Clothing Hints: The clothes you choose can influence the photographs. Pick outfits coordinate and go together both in style and color. You can dress up or dress casual depending on the look and artistic direction you would like for your photographs. Men look great in collars.
